

Project Manager

LAVA is a management consulting firm focusing on the utilities' market and its ecosystem. Covering all aspects of the business value chain and its support functions, LAVA helps organisations in their business transformation and performance improvement endeavors. We deliver services with bright, experienced professionals and strive for continuous client satisfaction. To join our team and sustain our growth, we are looking for a Project Manager.

Your role

- Manage the business application or service implementation projects of our clients, covering analysis, design, implementation, testing, acceptance, going live, warranty and maintenance
- Drive change, deal with project politics, you work cross-departmental, with both business and IT, and you know how to manage vendors
- Manage the issues, risks, changes and expectations along the duration of the project
- Report to the Steering Committee and senior management on the project progress

Your profile

- Project Manager with experience in service companies
- Managed at least two complete project life cycles
- You have proven experience with implementation of services and service applications
- Familiar with project management best practice and standards such as PMI and Prince2
- Result driven attitude
- People management skills and stress resistant
- Strong problem solving skills and ability to work with minimal supervision
- Passion for a project-based consulting lifestyle

- Fit with the values of LAVA: entrepreneurial spirit, drive, reliable, respect, growing together
- Ambassador of LAVA's qualities: expertise, listening to clients, bring effective results, master change and knowledge management, and attract good people
- You communicate fluently in Dutch, French and English
- You hold minimal one master degree

What we offer

In order for you to be successful, LAVA provides an innovative, professional habitat. Our colleagues are being challenged in projects, workshops and open discussions. We offer career paths that reflect the needs of our business, aligned with individual needs, aspirations and life stages. Our total rewards package includes a range of market-relevant benefits. You enter a fun, inspiring team.
